Obesity Medicine Association (OMA) Committees

Committee applicants are required to be members of OMA to participate on any committees.

Advocacy Committee

Strengthen OMA's advocacy efforts through participation in the Obesity Care Continuum and the Obesity Care Advocacy Network. Advocate for obesity care at the state and federal legislation levels, and assist in the progression of coverage for obesity treatment.

CME Overview Committee*

Review all aspects of CME activities, from disclosures to actual content, to ensure content is evidence-based and free of commercial influence.

*Upon request, applicants are required to fill out and submit a disclosure form.

Outreach Committee*

Increase awareness and recognition of OMA and the field of obesity medicine. Implement projects that promote the practice of obesity medicine to medical professionals.

*Committee members are expected to submit one or more blog articles to OMA during the committee term.

Membership Committee

Assist in recruiting new members and engaging existing members to increase membership and encourage retention. Enhance the membership experience by promoting current benefits and creating new benefits based on member needs.

NP and PA Committee

Advance the concept of using specially trained, expert practitioners for obesity and overweight treatment within the medical community on a local, state, and national level.

Pediatric Committee*

Further the practice of treating pediatric patients with obesity and promote the health of children and adolescents.

*Upon request, applicants are required to fill out and submit a disclosure form.

Speaker's Bureau Task Force

Expand the visibility of OMA and obesity medicine by leveraging the expertise within our membership to create and manage a bureau of OMA speaker-ambassadors who are available to lecture and comment on the topic of obesity at professional meetings, educational conferences and courses, and in a public relations capacity as directed by the OMA. Review applications and identify appropriate candidates to serve as subject matter experts for speaking engagements and public relations initiatives.
